

Warwick Symphony Orchestra
Warwick, Rhode Island

BUSINESS AD FORM

The Warwick Symphony Orchestra is a community based non-profit organization. The WSO has provided live symphonic music to communities throughout the state for over thirty years. The orchestra members come from all parts of Rhode Island. We perform five or six concerts during the winter holiday season, and a second series in late May and early June.

The WSO encourages you to support our efforts through a tax-deductible advertisement in our program booklet. Below you will find the advertising rates. Please fill out this form and mail it with your check made payable to 'Warwick Symphony Orchestra'.

Thank you in advance for your generous support!
